Shelving Information

Books in Library of Congress classifications are shelved in whole number order before the first decimal point, then in decimal order after the first decimal point. For example: HC79.E5G66; HC79.E5G7; HC103.S52; HC103.S6. A lowercase “x” after the decimal point has no significance.

Oversize volumes are designated by a “q” placed after the call number: AP20.R2425q. These books are usually shelved after all the non-oversize books on the same general subject. Pink stack markers indicate shelving for oversize books. Undersize volumes are designated by an “s” after the call number and are stored in an Annex Library. Extra-large books, designated as “f” and “e”, are shelved in the designated location (XL), at B-3-G.

To request a book from an Annex Library. . .

Submit a request via the Main Catalog “Request” page or the Library home page. Items requested will ordinarily be available within two working days.

■ Richardson Call Number Locations

Please see other side for Library of Congress call number locations.

Please note that Richardson call numbers for items in (F) and many other locations in Firestone Library have been converted to Library of Congress call numbers. Consult the Main Catalog record for the current location and call number of any book, and click on the “Where to find it” link in the record to see where the book is currently shelved.

If a Richardson call number has been converted, the old call number can be searched as a keyword. This feature should be useful if you want to update an annotated bibliography or research guide, for example, or if you want to find a book for which you have only an outdated call number.
